

Early Cutaneous Research Experiences (ECuRE) Seminar Series

Thursdays at 3:30 pm
Refreshments will be provided

June 29th: Cookies and Conversations with Junior Mentors

Location: BRB 1001 and Zoom

At Penn Dermatology we understand that mentors can be found at all stages of the career journey and each of us has a unique path. During this session you will have the opportunity to meet some of our talented trainees, learn about their research and their evolving career paths.

July 6th: Research Methods Flash Talks

Location: BRB 1001 and Zoom

Research uses a combination of established and cutting-edge techniques to answer pressing scientific and clinical questions. In a series of flash talks Dermatology researchers will introduce you to a wide variety of research methods that they use in their work.

July 13th: Topics in Skin Research I

Location: BRB 1001 and Zoom

Dermatological researcher encompasses a wide array of research areas. This week you will hear from our trainees and staff about their research.

July 20th: Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR)***

Location: BRB Auditorium, and Zoom (Link sent to pre-registered virtual attendees)

Ethics in scientific research is extremely important to both the rigor of the research and quality of training programs. It is also required that all NIH funded researchers undergo regular trainings in Responsible Conduct for Research (RCR). This session run by our dermatology faculty will be on best practices related to acquisition and management of data, including how to properly keep a notebook. Directed by Dr. Elizabeth Grice.

\Registration required*

July 27th: Topics in Skin Research II

Location: BRB 1001 and Zoom

Dermatological researcher encompasses a wide array of research areas. This week you will hear from our trainees and staff about their research.

August 3rd: Meet the Mentors and Ice Cream Social

Location: BRB 1001 and Zoom

Bring your questions to this roundtable forum, an interactive and informal session with Dermatology faculty on a wide range of topics including preparing yourself for a career in science/medicine, work-life balance, navigating laboratory dynamics, developing a scientific and professional network, among others. The topics are up to you! Session will be followed by an ice cream social with the department.